Inobits to Exclusively Distribute iTechnology Forms Accelerator in the United States

MISSION VIEJO, CA, Nov 26, 2008 (MARKET WIRE via COMTEX) -- iTechnology Corporation, an emerging leader in enterprise-class solutions for process automation, today announced Inobits, Inc. (Inobits) as the exclusive distribution partner in the United States of America for iTechnology Forms Accelerator(TM). The partnership opens additional channels for iTechnology and enables Inobits to exclusively distribute the forms generation component for K2blackpearl(TM) to their extensive network of customers in the United States of America.

"We're very careful when considering the products to distribute and support, and iTechnology Forms Accelerator(TM) certainly aligns well with our mission for delivering effective and robust process automation and management solutions," said Johan Grobler, president of Inobits, Inc. "It blends perfectly with our existing services and adds more value towards meeting the demands of customers and partners alike. Building user interfaces without InfoPath or custom ASP pages continues being in high demand in our customer base."

The new release of iTechnology Forms Accelerator, together with K2 blackpearl(TM) and Microsoft Visio 2007, includes all the tools needed to perform process modeling, data capturing, task processing, workflow distribution, routing by rules, retrieval and viewing. Additionally iTechnology Forms Accelerator has its own forms layout designer for defining user interfaces and presenting task information in web forms without usage of InfoPath or custom web development.

"We are confident that this relationship with Inobits, which is one of the leading K2 value-added distributors, will give iTechnology Forms Accelerator greater reach," said Dmitry Ivahno, president of iTechnology Corporation. "Inobits is a respected firm with a high level of expertise in the process automation and management field with a strong focus on pre- and post-sales support and is the ideal partner to further establish iTechnology's presence in the United States of America."

"We are pleased to partner with iTechnology which enables us to strengthen our product portfolio," added Johan Grobler. "Through iTechnology we will be able to offer affordable enterprise-class web forms development that meets both the financial and compliance needs of our customers."
